

NOTICE TO MARINERS No.21 of 2016

UPDATED PLA PUBLICATION RECREATIONAL USERS GUIDE

The Port of London Authority (PLA) has recently published a revised and updated Recreational Users Guide aimed at leisure users on the tidal Thames.

In addition to its previous versions, the guide identifies the locations of where visitor moorings are available, as well as the relevant contact information for the booking of these facilities. The revised guide includes; updates to Port buoyage, general improvements to the wording and layout. As such, this now supersedes all previous versions, which are no longer valid. Therefore, any remaining copies should be withdrawn.

Copies of the new Recreational Users Guide are being distributed to all Tidal Thames Navigators' Club (TTNC) members and should be received shortly. Please visit our website to enquire about joining the TTNC.

Copies of the guide are available free of charge by contacting our Navigational Safety Systems Coordinator by emailing: SafetyManagement@pla.co.uk, although the PLA reserves the right to charge for orders greater than four copies.

The Recreational Users Guide is also free to download from both: www.pla.co.uk – (Safety Tab – Regulations and Guidance) and www.boatingonthames.co.uk, along with copies of the PLA Thames Byelaws, General Directions and other Codes of Practices, which can be printed or saved onto mobile devices.
