

BARN ELMS REACH

PUTNEY BRIDGE PIER TRIAL

On or around the 27th October 2023 4 small orange marker buoys as denoted in the chartlet below will be placed as a trial marking the extremity of the proposed new pier at Putney.

During this trial an exclusion zone within the marked area will be in force and remain in place for approximately 8 weeks.

All river users are requested to be mindful of the exclusion zone and to pass at a safe distance. Rowers, please refer to the TTRC notice for further information.

Further details will be broadcast by London VTS on VHF Channel 14 as required.
